

El Hogar Del Niño is now part of the statewide organization Brightpoint. Brightpoint, formerly Children's Home & Aid, is a child and family service organization, with a range of services including early childhood care and education, parent support, youth services, mental health and wellness and child welfare.

El Hogar Del Niño will continue to offer the high-quality early childhood care and education parents have depended on for 50 years at the same location in Pilsen. As part of Brightpoint, El Hogar Del Niño families will have access to more services over time. Together, we can better serve more Latinx families in Chicagoland and across the state.

Brightpoint and El Hogar Del Niño believes that family is the most important asset for child and youth wellbeing, which is rooted in each organization's commitment to early childhood care and education. Together, we will both provide the best quality early care and education possible, with an expert focus on the needs of Latinx, and newly arriving families. Our greatest strength is our shared commitment to support strong families which create thriving children and communities.
