PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

This year we are not only celebrating 140 years of working with children and families in Illinois, but we are also announcing a new direction in our commitment to strong families and thriving children. Children's Home & Aid has never been afraid to be bold; systemic change is in our DNA.

We invite you to join us and Nicholas Kristof (New York Times Columnist, Co-Author of Tightrope: Americans Reaching for Hope and Half the Sky: Turning Oppression into Opportunity for Women Worldwide) as we highlight how Children's Home & Aid and our partners can be change agents in the lives of children and families across Illinois.
